

EXPERTS
AT HELPING
DISTRIBUTORS
PUBLISH TO THE NPC.

8 REASONS DISTRIBUTORS SHOULD TALK TO BIZCAPS

1. Proven experience in enabling distributors to use the NPC to publish to HPV

Our client community includes distributor and wholesaler customers of all sizes, from Australia's largest healthcare wholesaler and distributor, to smaller operators. Our clients include HPV, food manufacturers and distributors. With Bizcaps you partner with the team who has a proven track record of making publishing to the NPC quick and easy.

2. Deliver benefits to your organisation beyond just contractual obligation

Imagine easy synchronisation of your supplier's data with your own internal data (e.g. your ERP system), enabling you to easily update and enhance your internal product data. Imagine how easy it will be to pull together your next tender submission. Our tools enable you to do this. You can also workflow your governance processes to automate the required internal approvals – streamlining your processes and freeing up your staff and resources.

“Being a new user the Bizcaps’ staff have been a wonderful help, offering excellent and efficient service every time.”

Administrative Assistant,
Tru Blu Beverages

3. Experts in automating master data management and embedding critical controls

We help our clients automate processes so they are maintaining one source of their product master data, which they can easily share with all of their trading partners in their partners required format. This helps them manage multiple requirements from a single platform, automate critical catalogue management tasks, and embed data validation controls into standard business processes.

4. Supplier on-boarding made easy

As a distributor you need to publish data owned and maintained by your suppliers, often within a tight timeframe. Partner with Bizcaps and use our tools and expertise to on-board your suppliers, freeing up your time and ensuring you have a quick and easy publishing experience.

5. Wide-ranging experience in food and beverage publishing and supplier portals

Our clients include Coca Cola Amatil, Rinoldi Pasta, Oriental Merchants, Lion, Murray Goulburn, Cantarella Bros, Freedom Foods, Mrs Macs, Cordina Chickens and George Weston Foods (to name a few), as well as the world's largest provider of foodservice and foodservice support solutions.

6. Tools for businesses – small and large

Our user friendly web-based tools are designed to streamline your NPC publishing and can provide a perfect match to your existing business systems.

7. Compliance with your contractual obligations

Our experts work with you to make compliance with your trading partner's contractual requirements simple, and we can help you set up governance processes.

8. Focussed on streamlining the NPC-publishing process for your business

At Bizcaps our experience, combined with our workflow tools, help businesses streamline the sharing of their product and pricing data.

“Support is a strong point and Bizcaps is very quick at responding and dealing with issues. A vital link between ERP and retailers.”
